TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Miss. Bushra Shahbaz has successfully secured 3rd Position in the Full Stack Web Development Quiz at DECTHON 2025, an Online Hackathon organized by Decentral Developers on February 1, 2025.

Throughout the competition, Bushra Shahbaz demonstrated exceptional knowledge of both frontend and backend web technologies, a strong understanding of web development principles, and the ability to apply theoretical concepts effectively. Her deep expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, backend frameworks, databases, and API integration enabled her to excel in the quiz and outperform her peers.

Her outstanding performance in the hackathon reflects her attention to detail, analytical thinking, and commitment to mastering full stack development. We highly recommend her for any future opportunities in the field of web development, software engineering, and technology.

We are confident that her technical expertise, dedication, and passion for full stack development will make her a valuable asset in any organization or project.

We wish her all the best in her future endeavors.

Date: January 07, 2025.
